

WEEKLY REPORT
Air Division
Environmental Protection Agency
Region 9
Week Ending February 10, 2017

Significant Items for This Week (February 6 – February 10)

San Joaquin Valley (SJV) PM_{2.5} Workshop: On February 9, EPA attended a public workshop on PM_{2.5} stationary source control measures. This was the last of a set of five public meetings hosted by California Air Resources Board and the SJV Air District on PM_{2.5} planning and control measures. (Contact: Rory Mays, 2-3227)

Solar and Battery Storage Project in American Samoa Webinar: On February 16, we will hold a webinar to provide an overview of the solar and battery storage project in the American Samoa. Through the West Coast Collaborative, EPA provided grant funds to replace an old, dirty diesel generator, which was the island's sole source of electricity, with a zero-emission solar and storage system and a cleaner emergency diesel generator. This will save 110,000 gallons of diesel fuel annually. (Contact: Trina Martynowicz, 2-3474)
